

Human Library for international cooperation and friendship

The Human Library™ is designed to build a positive framework for conversations that can challenge stereotypes and prejudices through dialogue.

The MIRO and the University Library together adapt this brilliant idea of developing a real communication to spread the message of the internalisation - international understanding, cooperation and friendship among our students, professors, and co-workers and organizes the first Human Library in Leoben with our international guests from China, Russia, Iran and Ukraine.

Concept

„Books“ – our international guests
Users – students, professors, and employees of the Montanuniversitaet Leoben

Rule: Users borrow a book for max. 30 minutes to ask about what they want to know from the „book“

Conversation issue: no prescription, but no small talk

After the 30 minutes users can change their book or extend for one further period.

Our books

Ying Yang Deputy Director of International Cooperation and Exchange Office

Qian Wang Staff of International Cooperation and Exchange Office

Vladimir Balitskiy Associate Professor from Oil & Gas Wells Drilling Department

Zohreh Dehghani Deputy Director for Scientific and International Cooperation

Olena Diachenko Manager of the Department of International Projects

Irina Klimkina Associate Professor at the Department of Ecology and Environmental Technologies

Olena Churikanova Associated prof. E-economy and Economical Cybernetics Department

Vladyslava Cherednyk Engineer in the Department of International Relations

Dmitrii Tananykhin Deputy Dean of Oil & Gas faculty

BE A PART OF IT

 18th October, 2018

10:00 am

Main Library Reading Room